DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The amendment filed 3/20/06 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132(a) because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132(a) states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: the term "drilled" in paragraph [0030] is not supported by the original disclosure.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 19 is objected to because of the following informalities: the dependency of claim 19 needs to be corrected. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-17 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tripp ('630) in view of Willis 4,477,059. The primary reference discloses the invention substantially as claimed, namely a plurality of flexible strips helically wound upon one another to form a post or pole; see Figure 6, column 2, lines 33-38, column 3, lines 16-31 and column 3, lines 57-59. However, it does not disclose a transverse hole through the pole. The secondary reference discloses placing a transverse hole and a hollow tube through a post in order to form a fence; see Figure 4 and the Abstract. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to form a transverse hole and place a hollow tube through the post in the product of the primary reference in view of the secondary reference, depending on the end use of the post, for example to form a fence. The primary reference also does not disclose encasing the post or pole. The primary reference does disclose encasing other embodiments (see for example Figures 7-12) and, therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to encase the tubular member of the reference to provide additional strength and weather resistance. Concerning claim 5, the primary reference discloses the use of adhesive to adhere together the belts in the tubular article. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use a polymer adhesive as the adhesive in the article of the primary reference since it is well known in the adhesive art to form adhesives from polymers.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 18 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
